Principal's Message

In 1938, CK Hayes, then principal at Willard Middle School, wrote in the yearbook: "Cooperation means so working that others may work with you."

As we take a look back at Willard in 2006, this is just as evident with all of our exciting changes this year. From the new remodel of our school to implementing our new "positive behavior plan", I am glad to have witnessed all the growth. Our Positive Behavior Plan adopts the code of behavior: "Be Safe, Be Responsible, Be Respectful" to promote more personal responsibility.

Enjoy your journey as you look at this year's memories....we hope that this will be the start of many more to come!!

Robert Ithurburn
Principal

Willard Middle School
The Target
2005 - 2006

Why is the yearbook called "The Target"?

In 1907, a Willard student, Alice Andrews, gave our yearbook it's name from a poem she wrote about staying on "target" with her goals.
